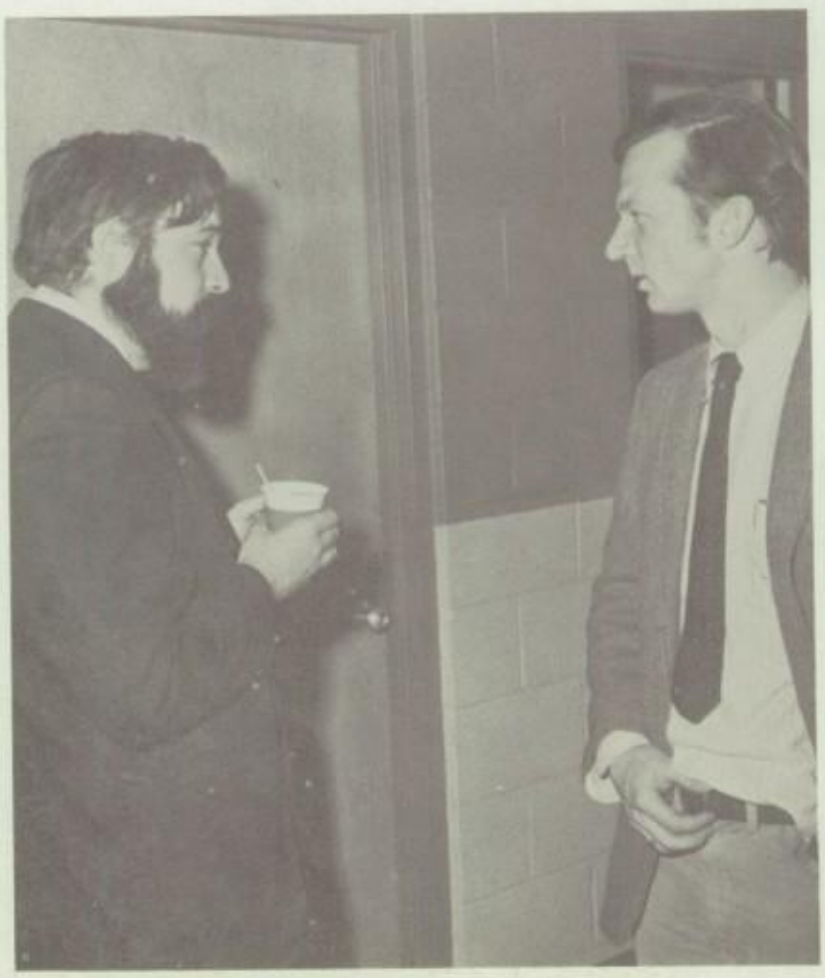
Dedication

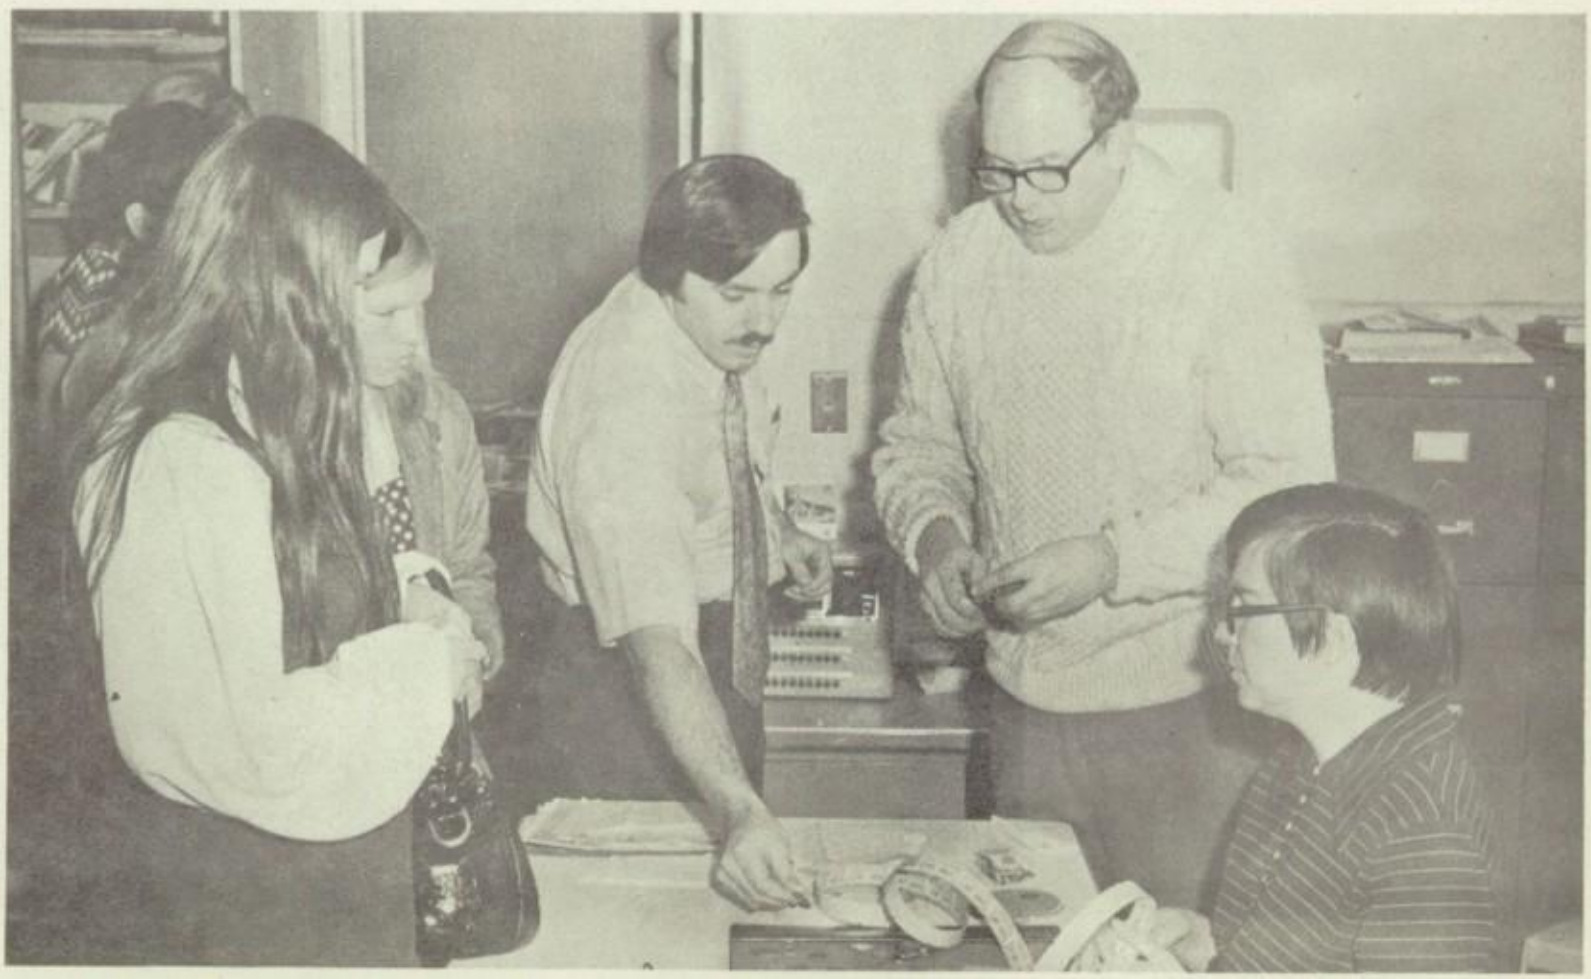
We, the Senior Class of 1972, wish to dedicate our yearbook to the faculty and administration of Whitingham High School.

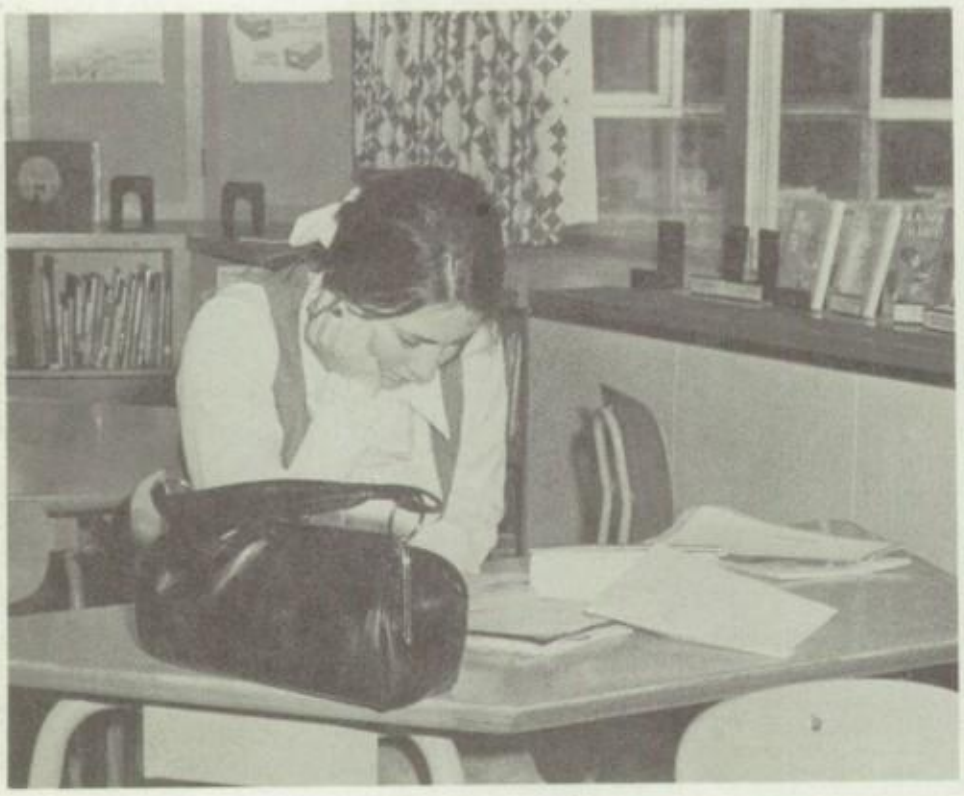
We wish to thank them for their endless assistance, inexhaustible energy, and abundant patience. The help we received did not cease after the last bell rang, but continued on, in the form of rehearsals and practices.

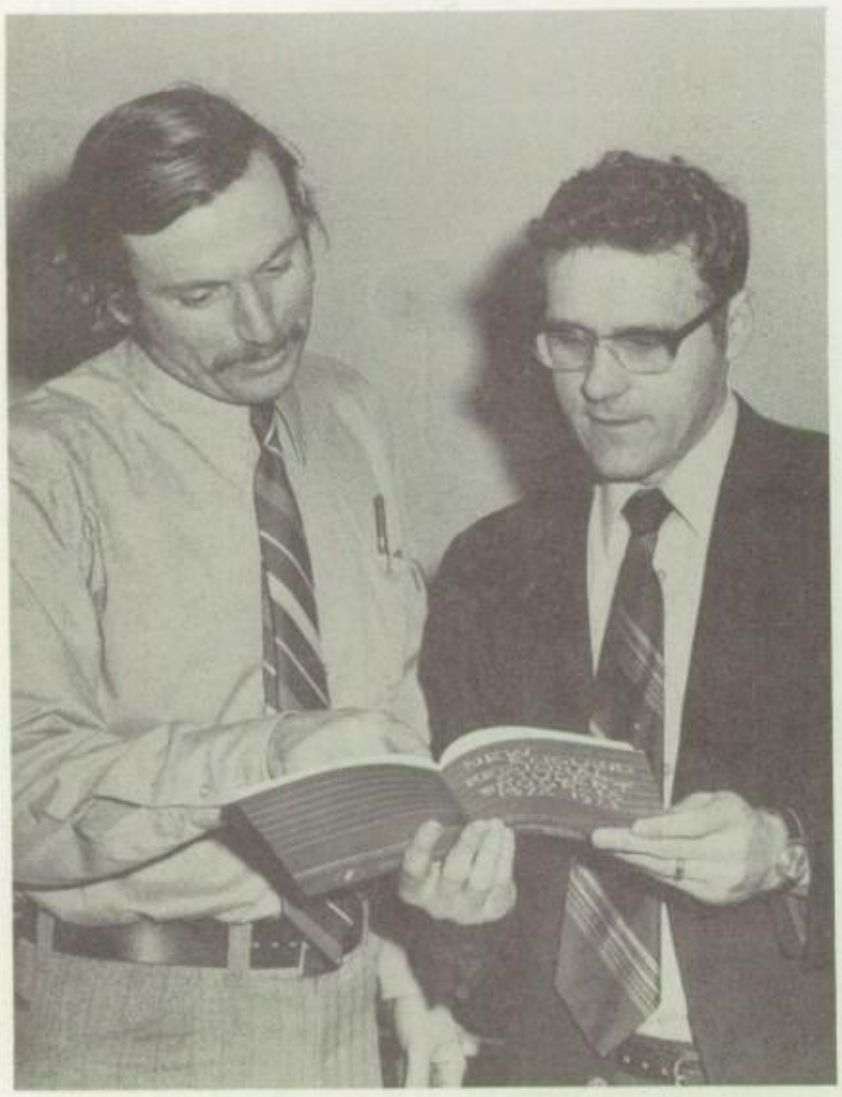
We also wish to express our appreciation to those who worked behind the scenes. Without their silent efficiency, our hours at school could not have been so worthwhile.

As we near the end of our high school years, we realize the importance of the guidance and time we have received. Through our saying thank you, we only hope that you will recognize our gratitude for all that you have done.









Remember our few trips to and from Hartford. I'll miss you next year!

Miss Smith

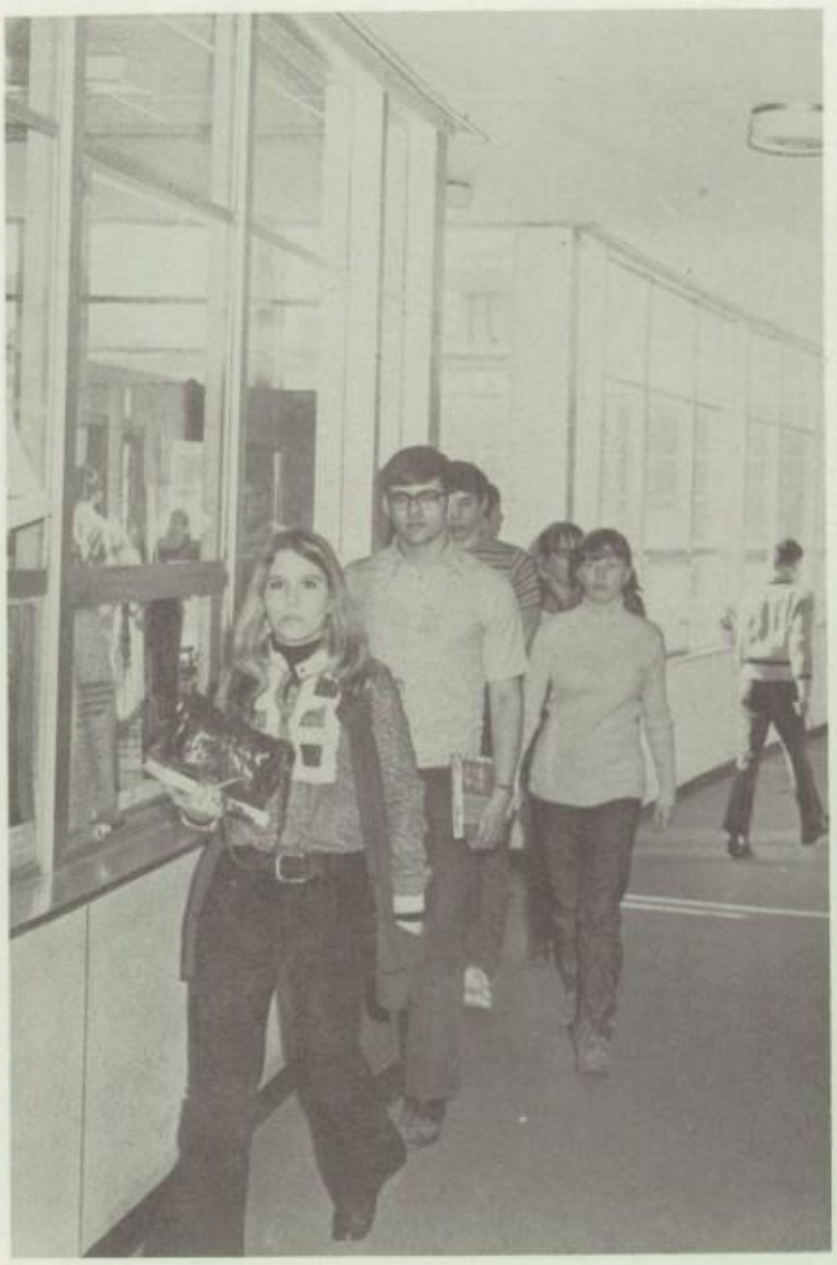
For everything

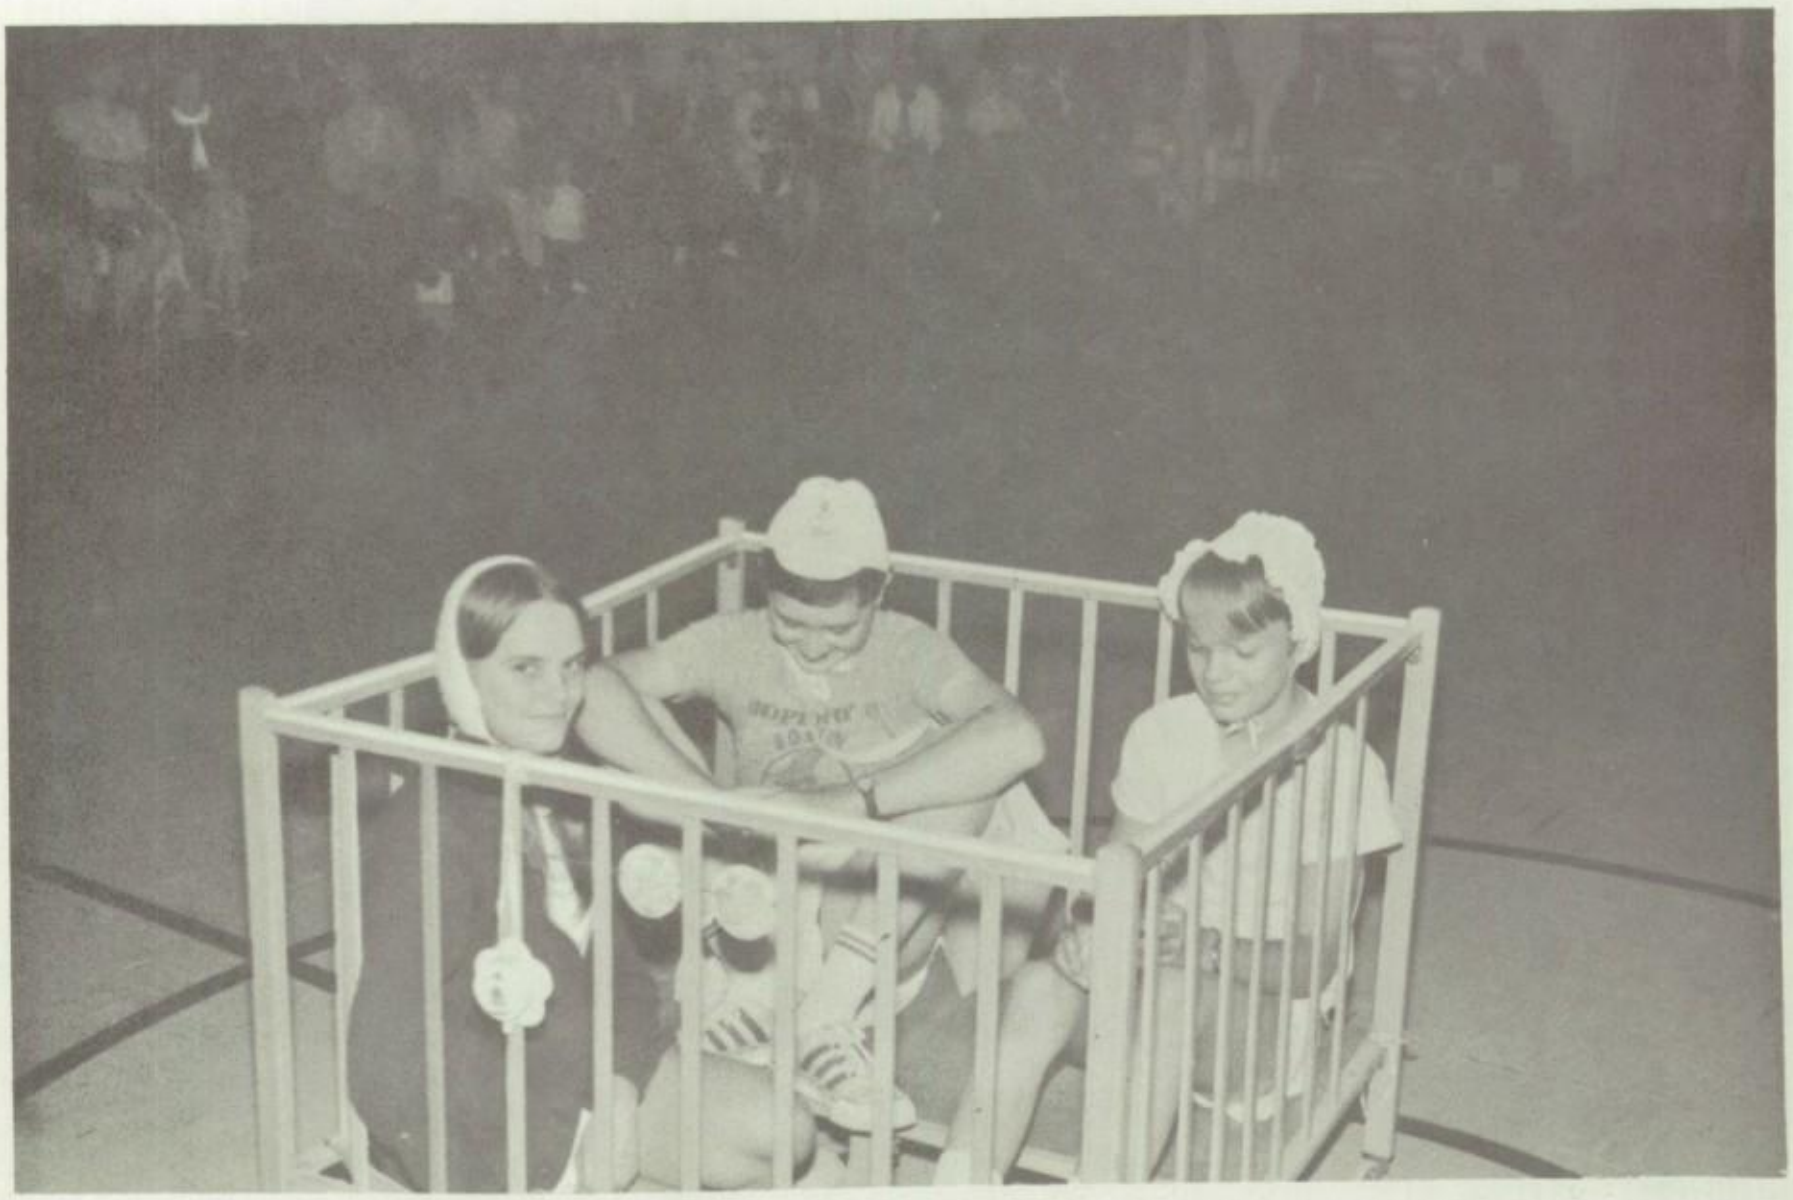
there is a season,

and a time for every



matter under heaven:

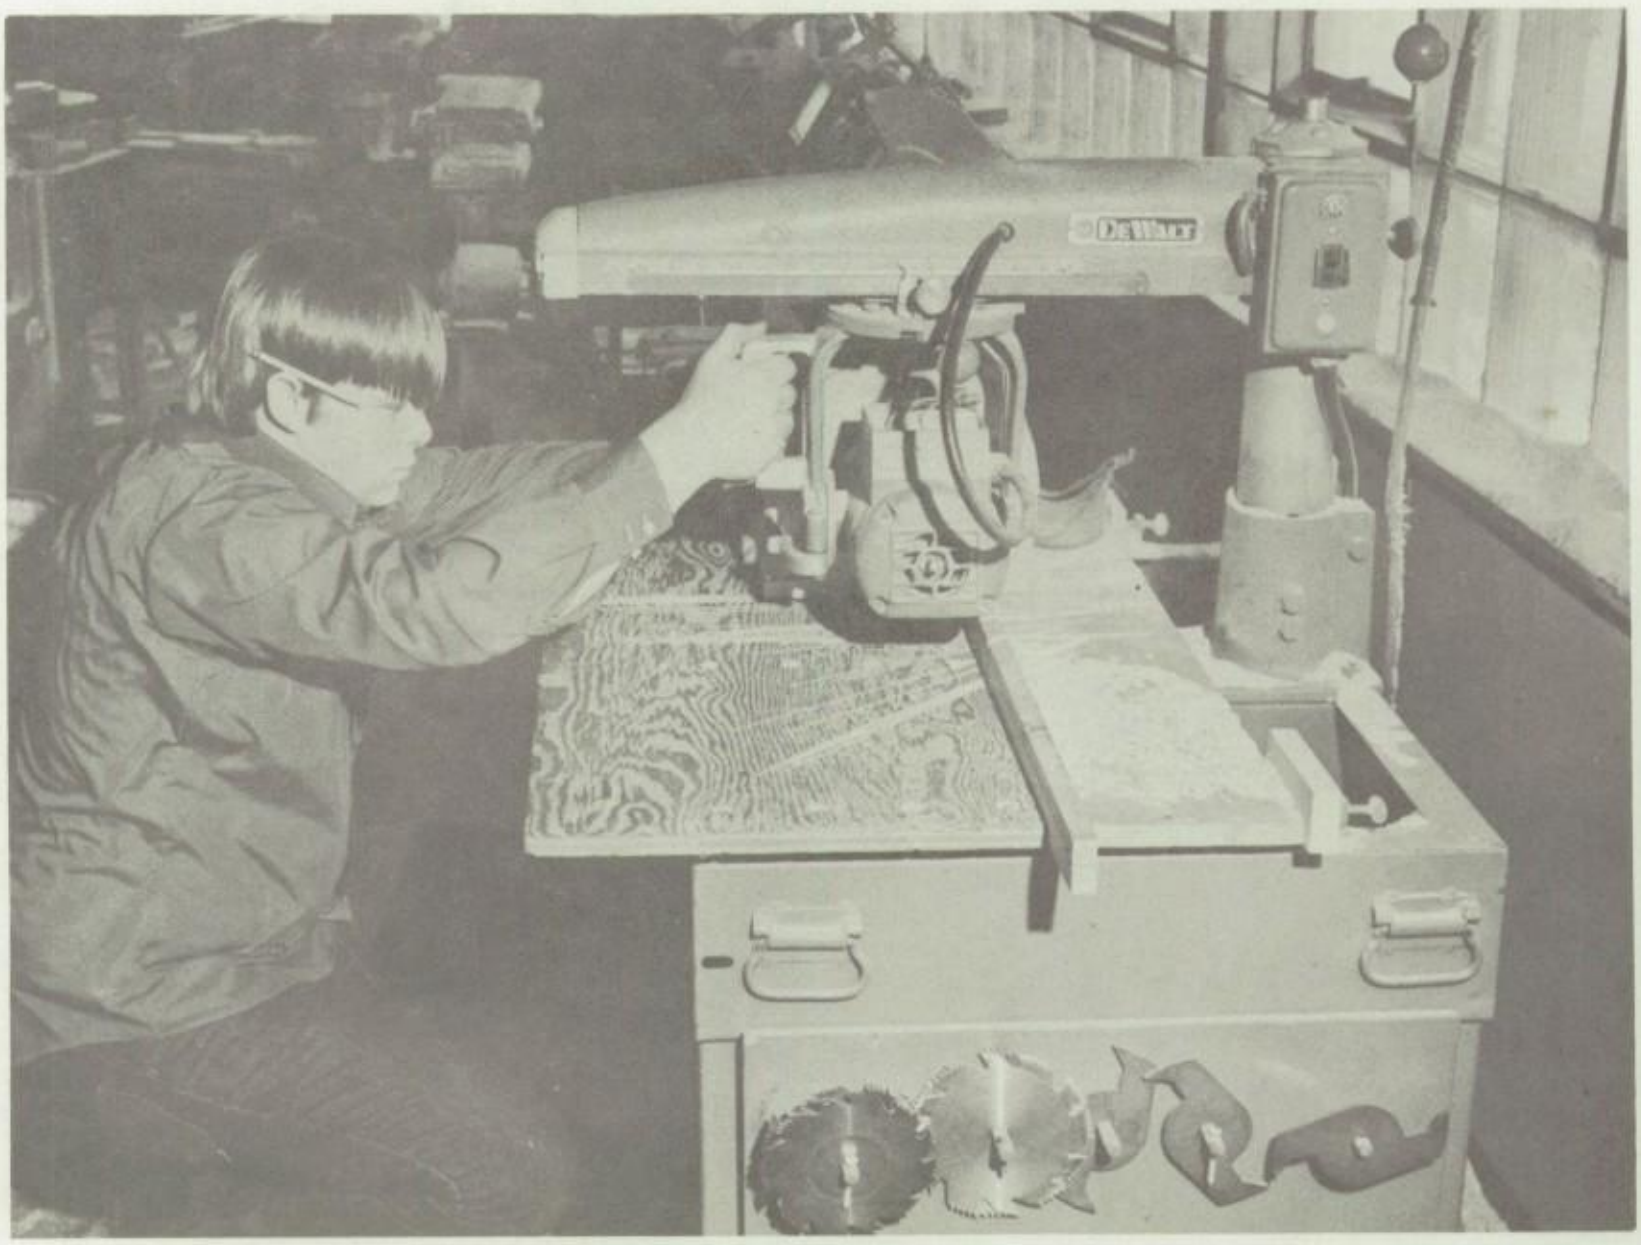
a time to be born,



and a time to die;

a time to kill,

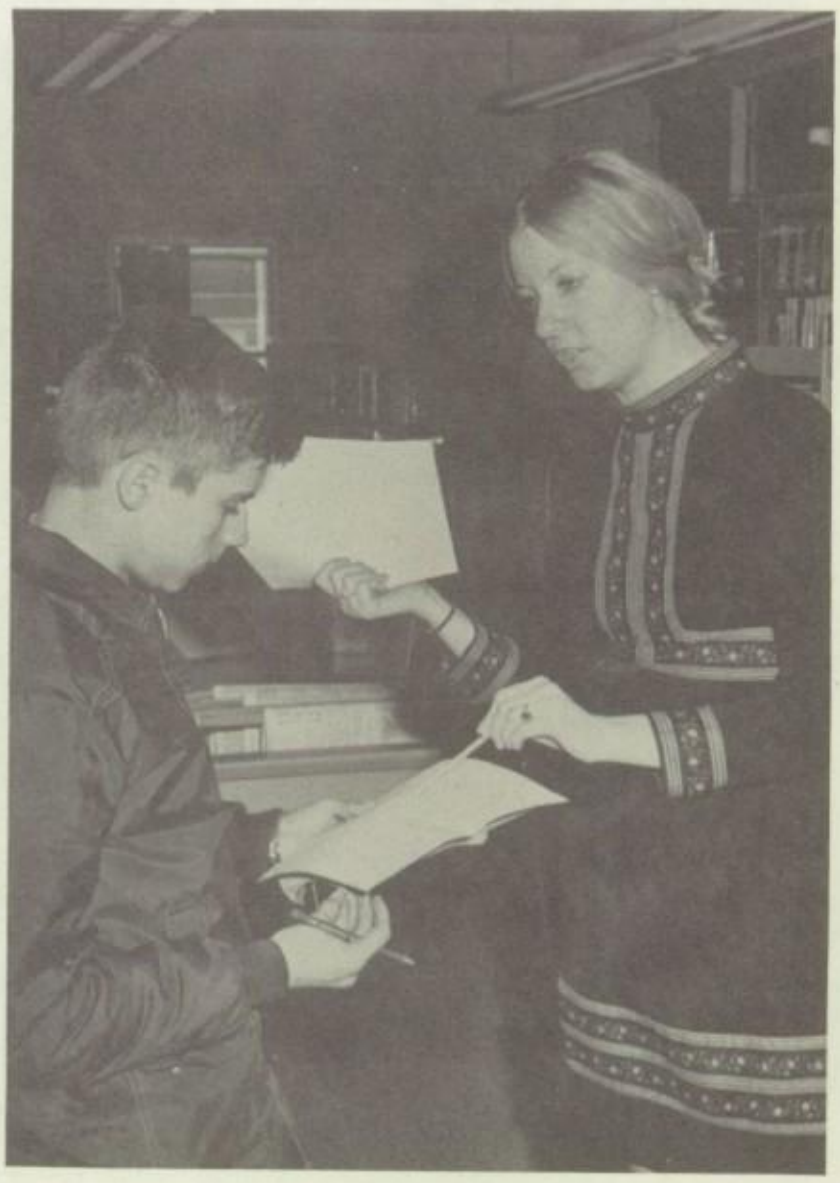
and a time to heal;



a time to build up,

a time to break down;

a time to weep,



and a time

to laugh;

a time to mourn,

and
time
to dance,

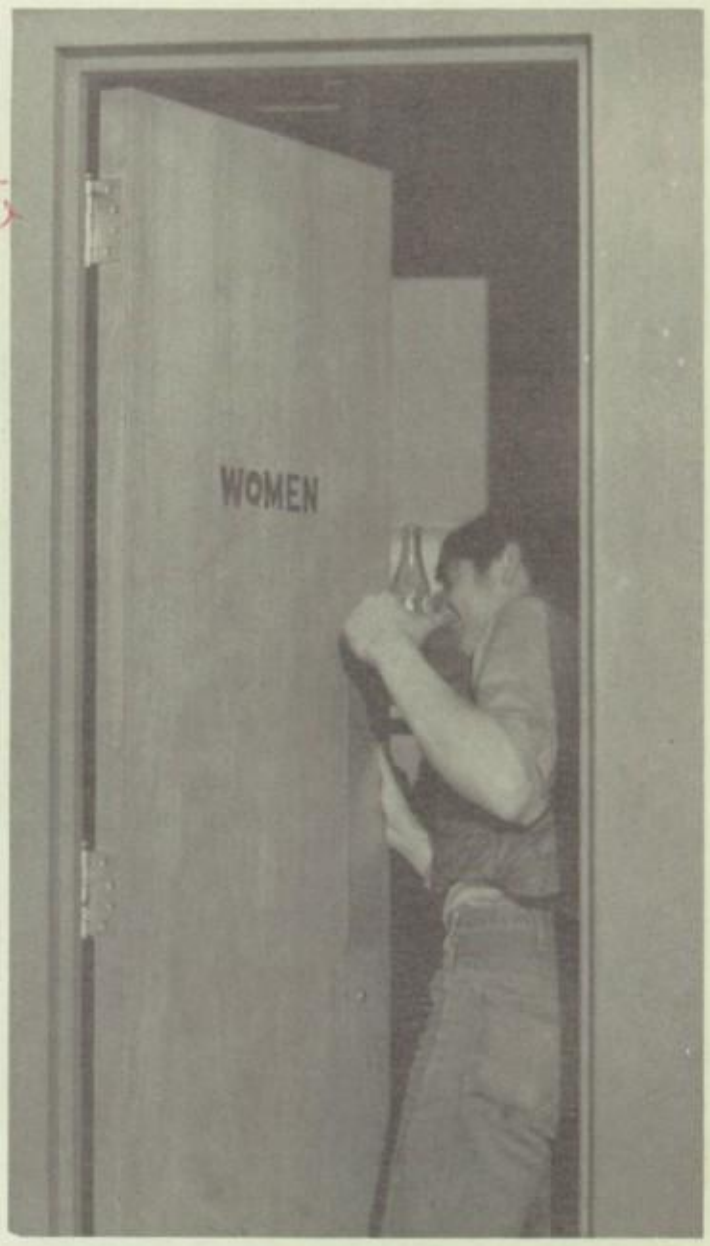
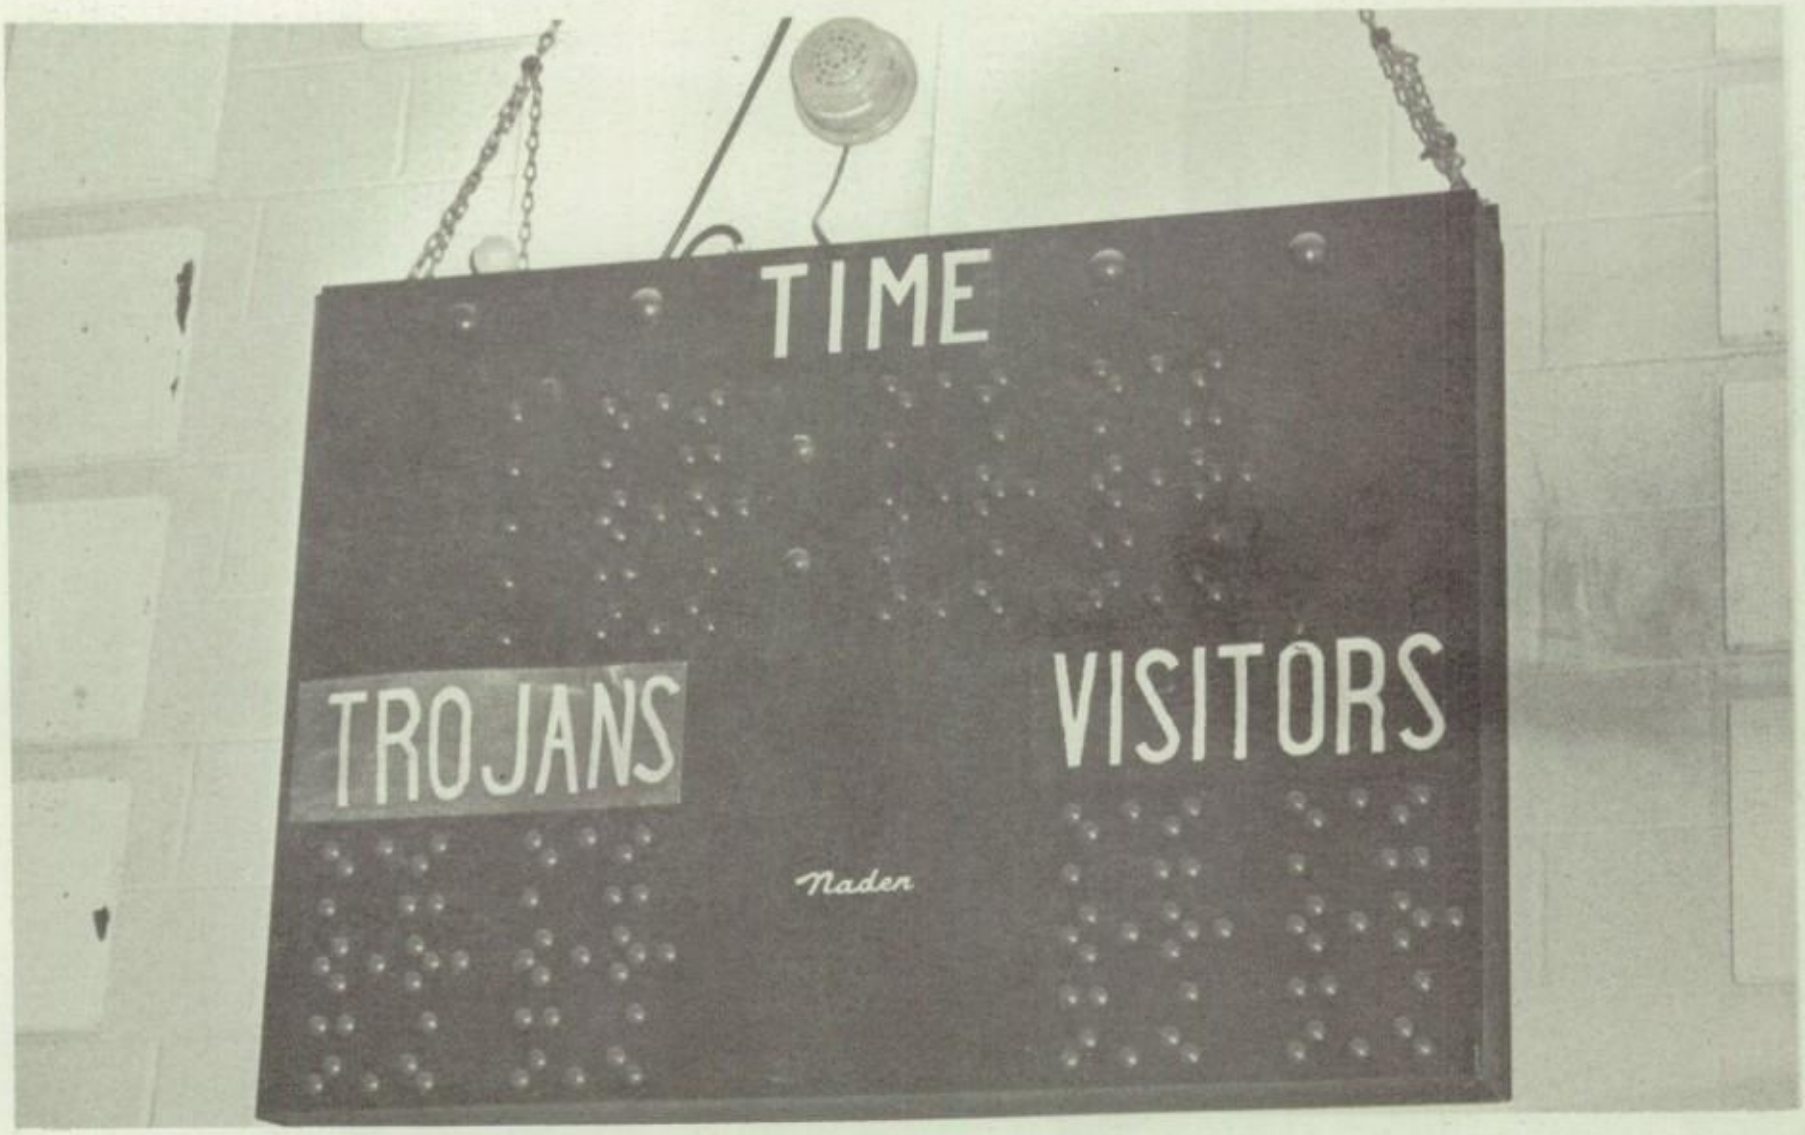
a time to seek,



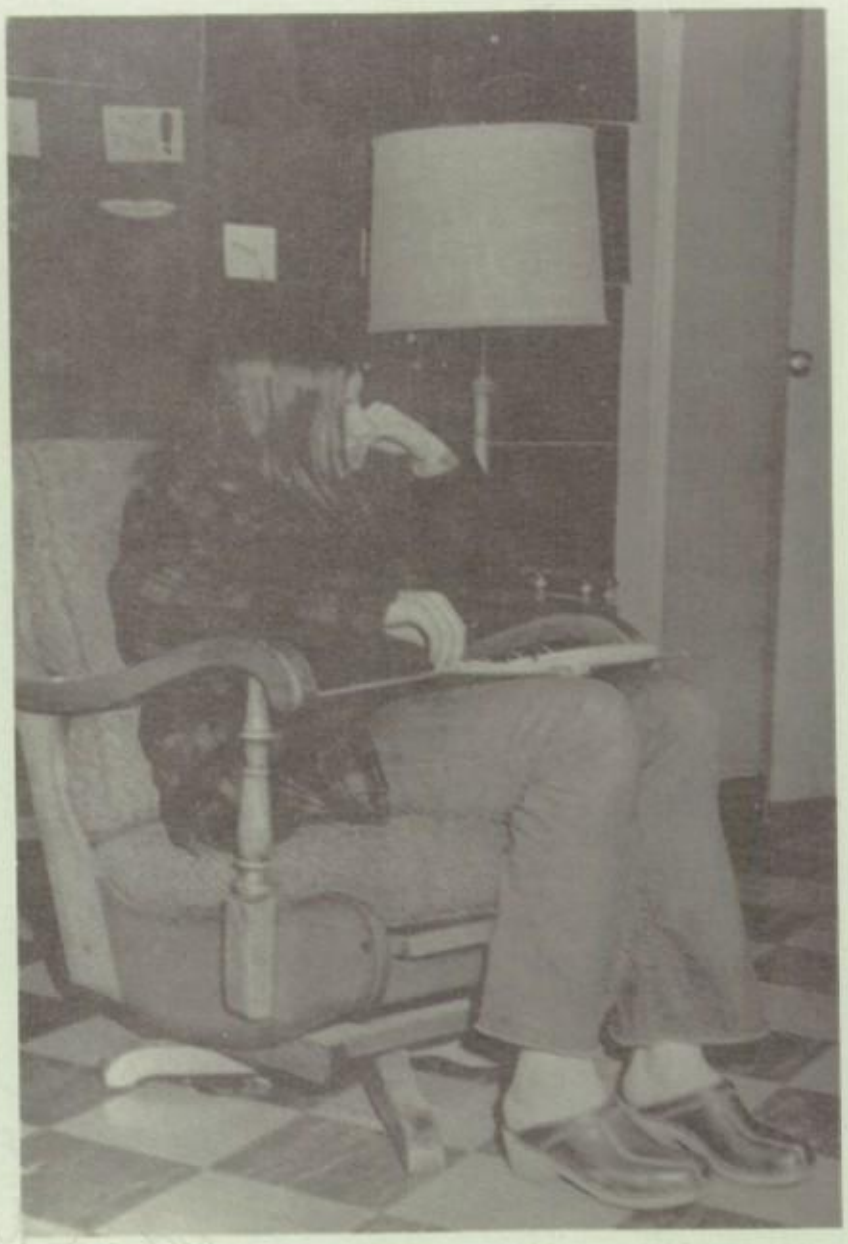
and a time to lose;



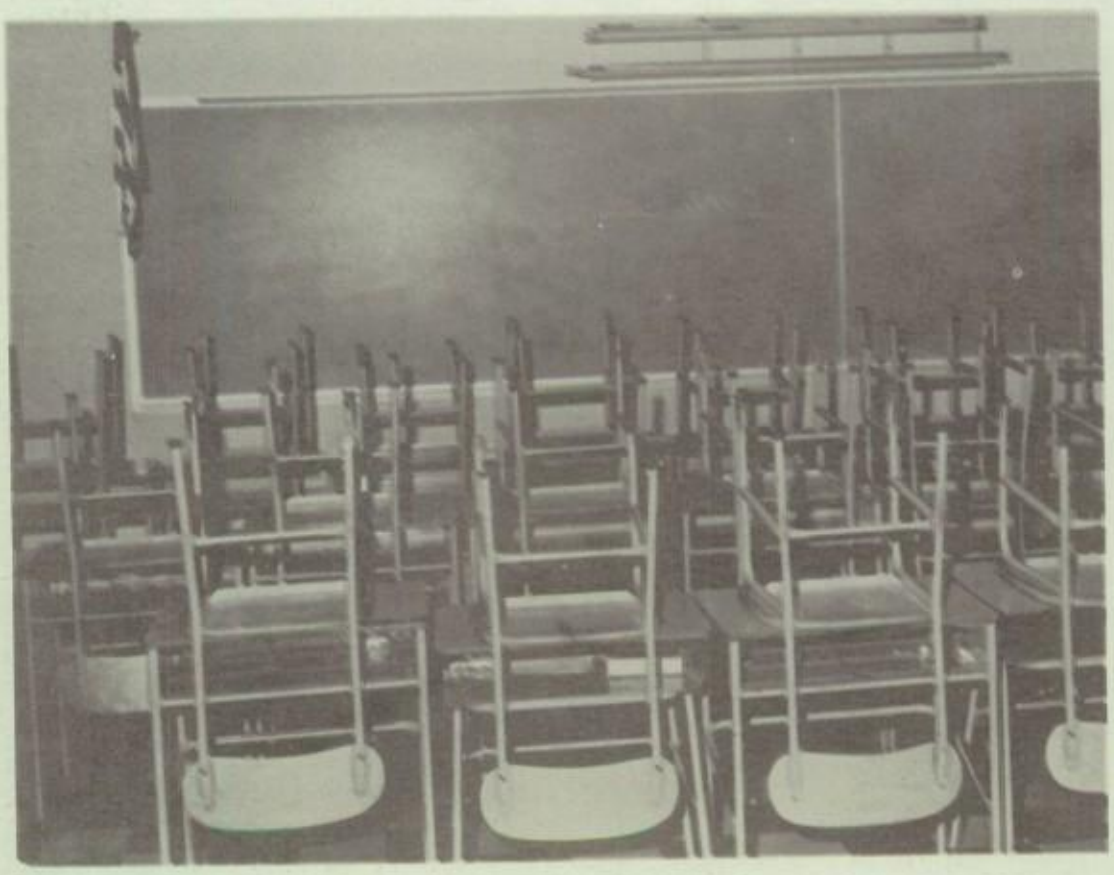
and a time to keep.,

and a time to sew;

a time to keep silent,



Mark



and a time to speak;

a time to love,

Back in the good old days things were great, they still are. Peace Lee B.

Edie, you're a nice girl Edie. Stay that way. May you always be happy. Love, Sandy and a time to hate;

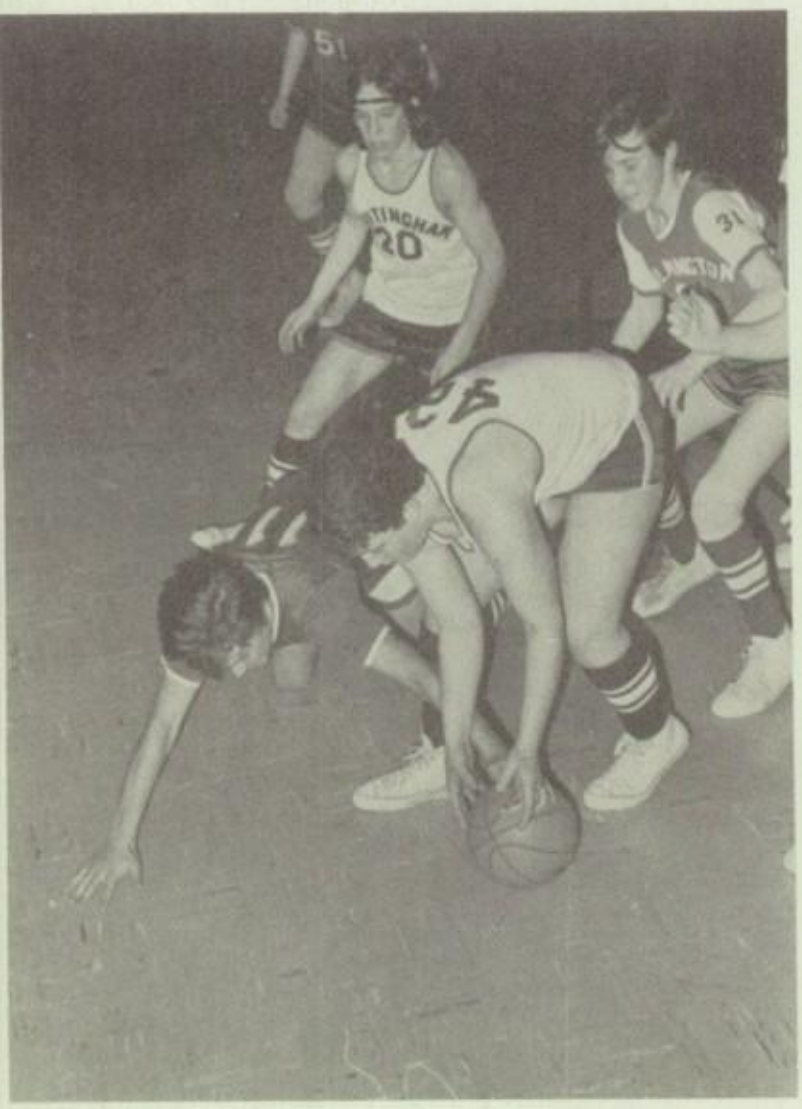
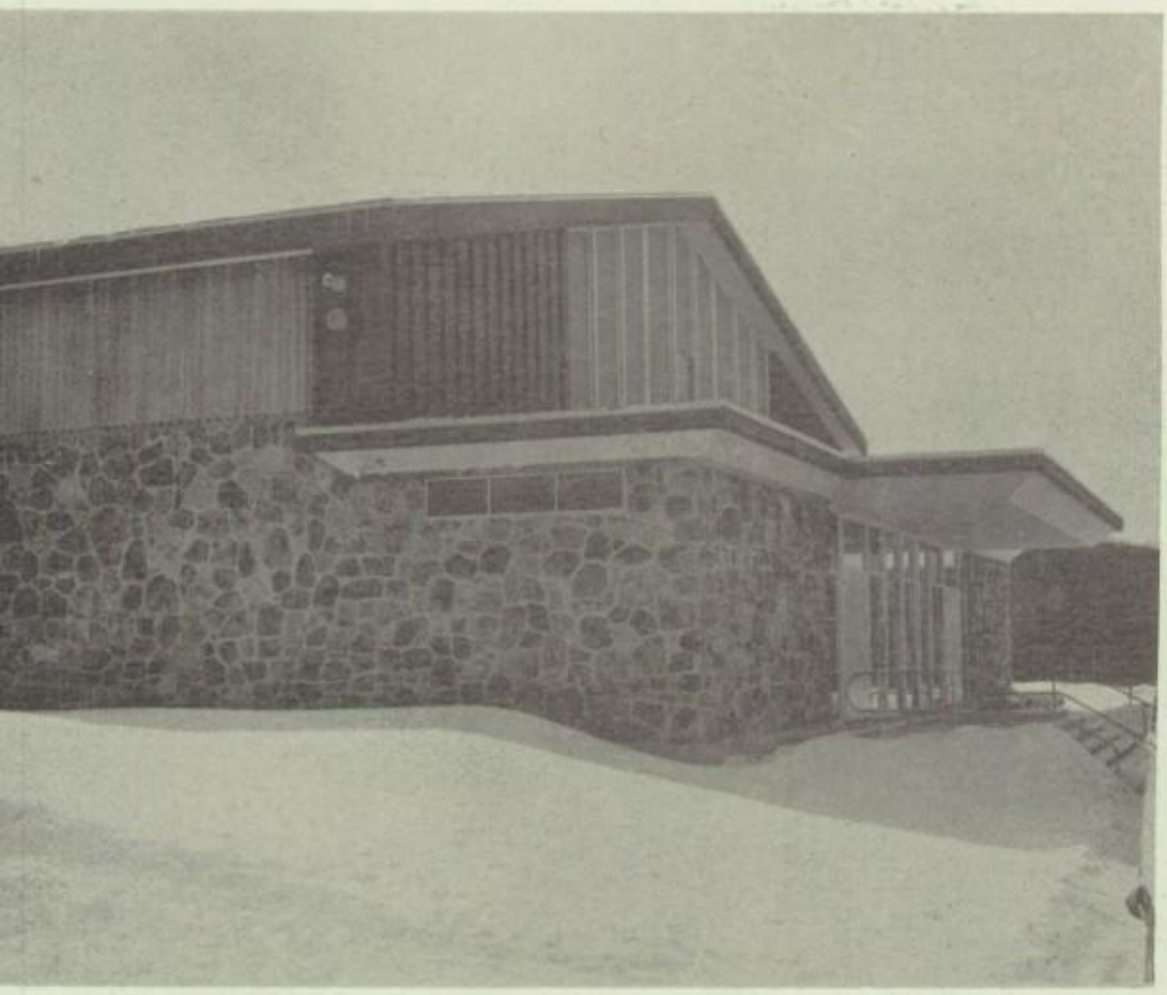
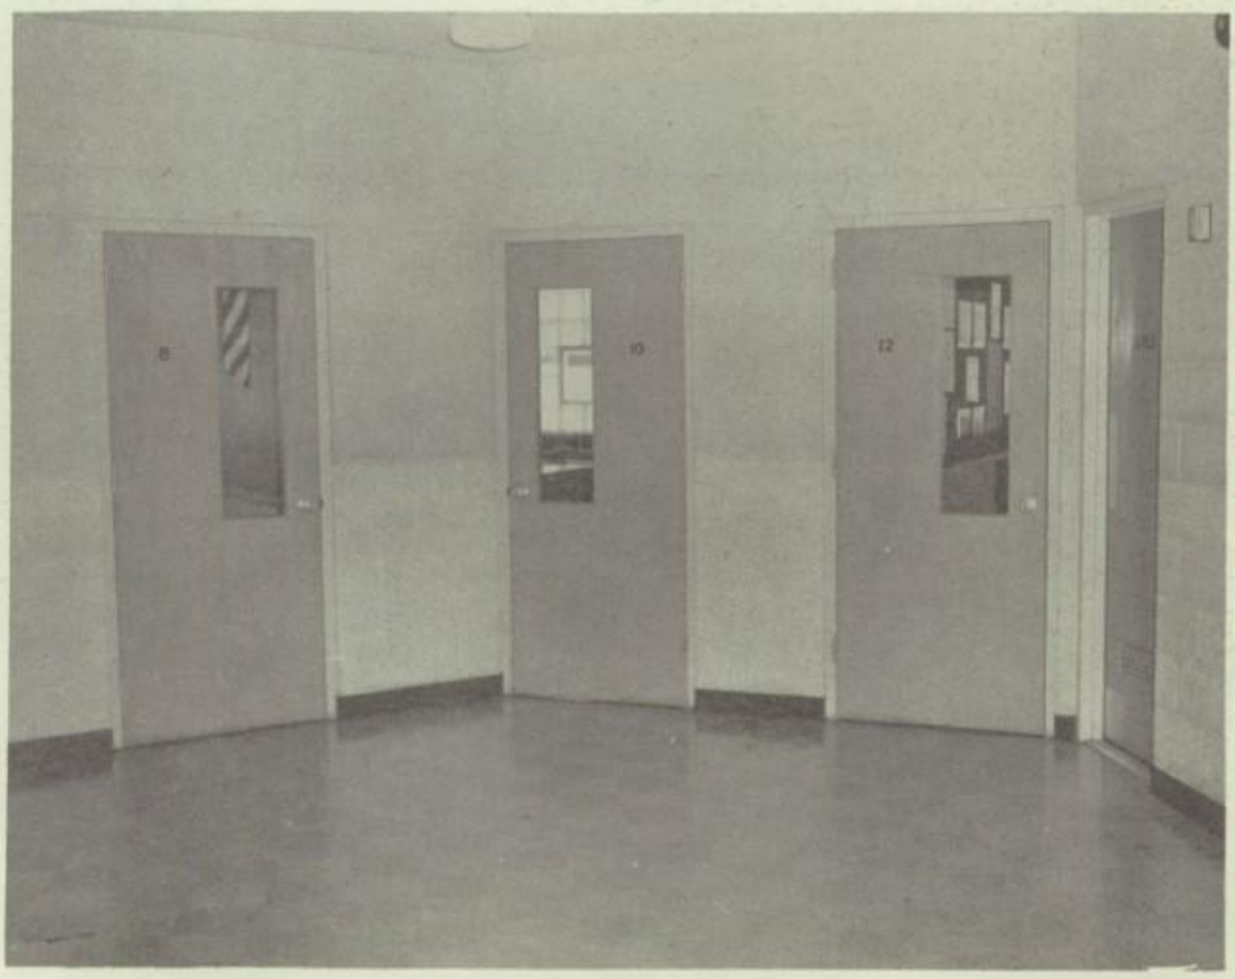
a time for war,



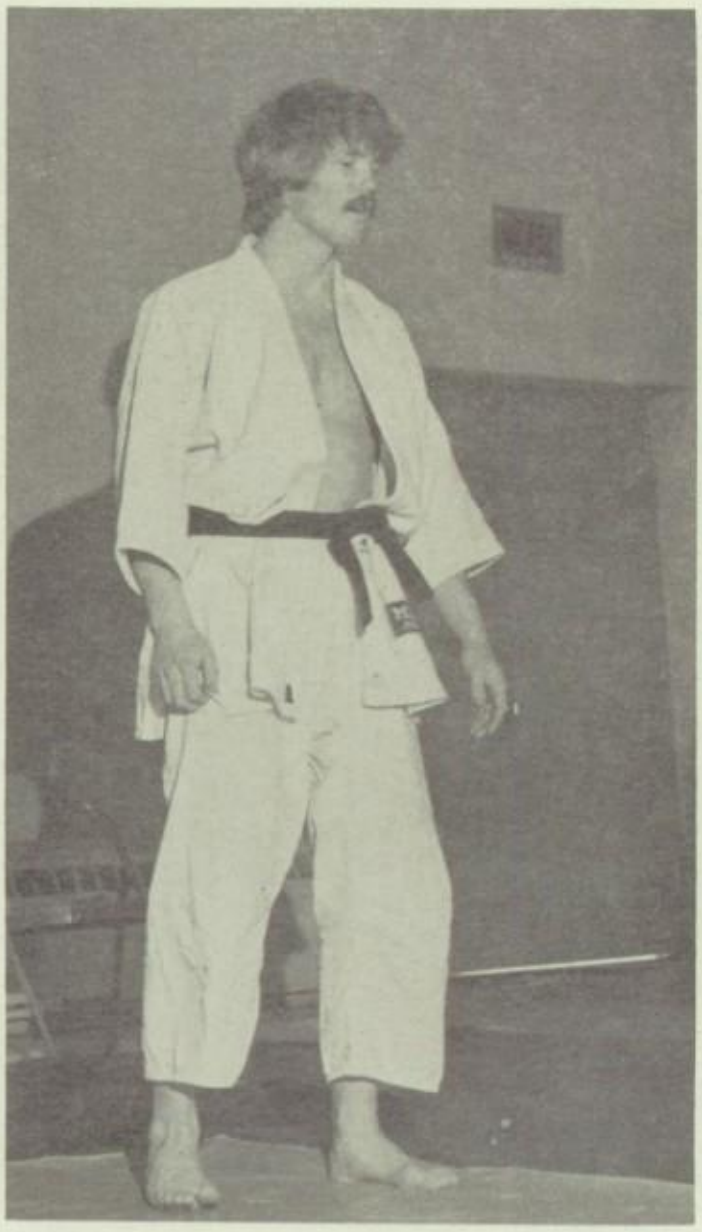
and a time for peace;

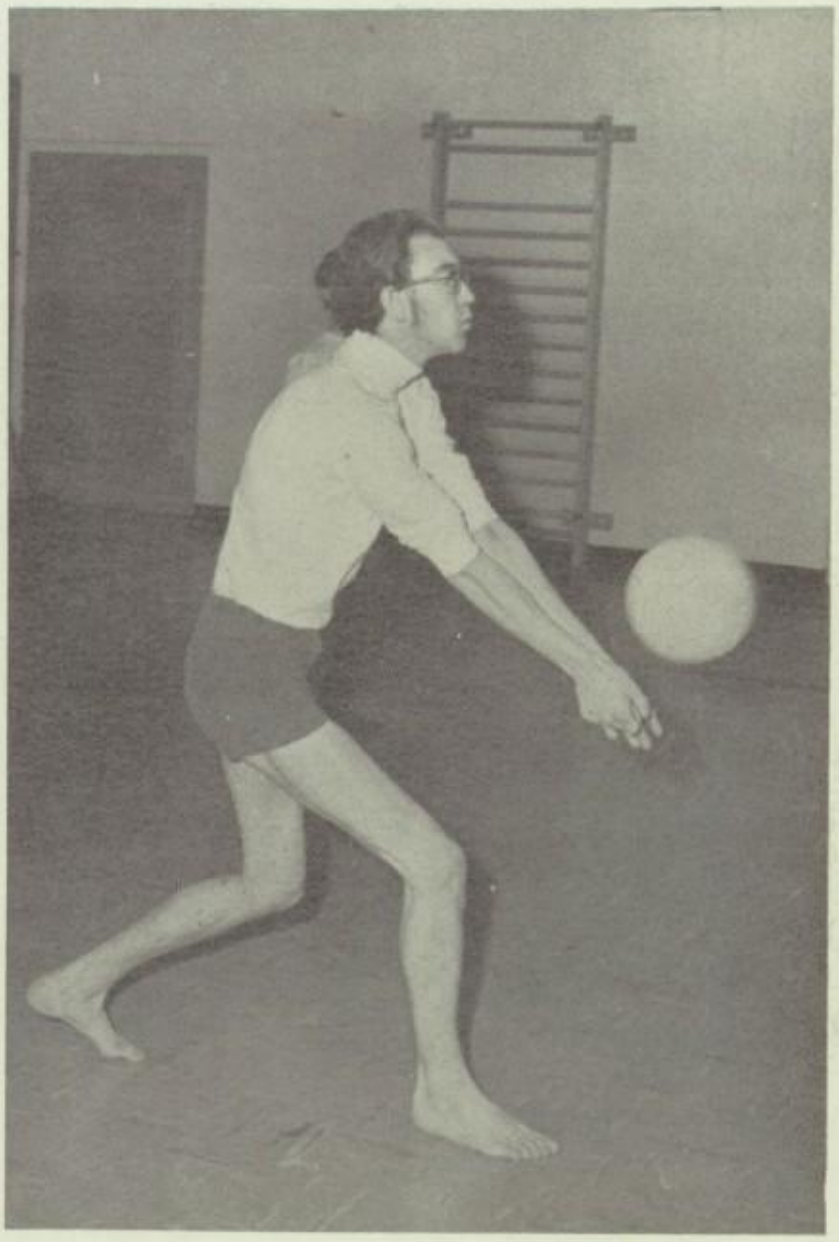




a time to serve,

and a time to improve,





and a time

to remember.

SENIORS

CHERYL ANN ADAMS

Sheri... small in size but not in happiness... eager to have fun whether it be tricker drinking or just socializing in the lounge... a peppy cheerleader and a coordinated gymnast... likes to travel... has BIG plans to be a nurse.

LINDA LORRAINE BARNARD

Linda... was imported from Wilmington at the beginning of our junior year... that didn't bother her... made the Honor Roll... played softball and snarled at the rest of the players when they messed around... while on safety patrol, she kept the wild kids on Jake's bus in line.

CRAIG ALAN BARTOSEWICZ

Barkus... really knows how to throw parties... helps to liven up our class... attends school in Bennington... if he slides off North Hill in time to catch the bus... active in baseball and basketball... on the soccer field, he surprises the other team by sitting down when he wants.

JOANNE EVELYN BEMIS

Joanne... a person who's not afraid to say what's on her mind... really knows how to throw a good punch... active in sports all through high school basketball, field hockey, and softball... the social butterfly of the Readsboro Inn... keeps the World Problems class going with her "dangerous curves".

Edie
A good friend
Keep Smiling
Martha

MARTHA JANE BIRCH

Martha... member of the girl's room clan... active in gymnastics, softball, and field hockey... quest at nearly every party... spends her week nights at her job, at Ruff and Ready... also loves to stuff as much gum as possible into her mouth... she'll be O.K. as long as she stays out of the library.

LEE JAMES BOLOGNANI

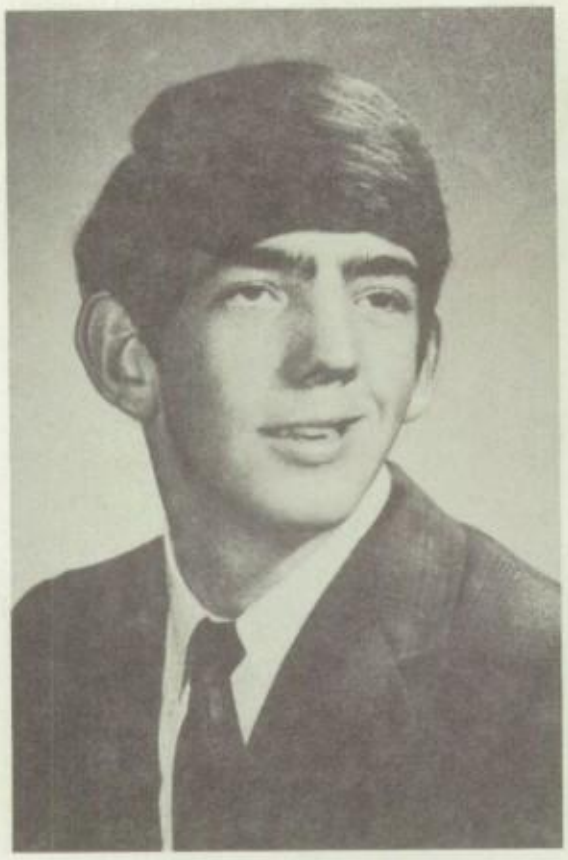
Lee... quiet guy from Readsboro... lucky enough to be chosen for Boy's State... played baseball and was also on the gymnastics team... arranged for photography for our '72 Echoes... always has his jeep on hand.

MARY LOUISE BOLT

Mary Lou... junior in age, senior in class... had the ability to finish high school in three years... member of the National Honor Society... hopes to make it to college before reform school... enjoyed playing basketball, softball and field hockey.

DAVID DEAN BOWEN

David... the class bookworm from way over in Heartwellville... helped out as a teacher's aid in typing... included on this year's Honor Roll... a hardworking member of drama... "David learn your lines!!"



PARK GRISWOLD CARRIER

P.G...always has a smile... How's your mother's car?... the best trombone player in the band!... bellows in chorus every 7th period, also... helped to make up new school rules... tried to put them into effect... good try, P.G.

Edi
To a really great kid that I allways [illegible] like. Have fun with the boys

Good Luck

Cathy

EDITH MAE CARRUTH

Edie... the reserved member of the class, in school that is... always cheerful and smiling... how's Turkey?... played field hockey for W.H.S... made the Honor Roll several times.

SANDRA MARIE COOK

Cook... the good time girl... quiet in school, but watch out after the bell rings... has the potential to go far... made the Honor Roll and the National Honor Society, also managed the girl's basketball team... helped cook up our wonderful meals in the cafeteria during the morning.

DENNIS NEIL COREY

Denny... a friend to everyone... Where did you get that laugh?... one of the best athletes of our class... soccer, gymnastics, baseball and basketball... Where's Dennis?... watching the girl's gymclass, of course.

Edie
Remember our class trip and all
we've been through these 17 years. Luv A. Leon

LEON LEWIS CORSE

Leon... better known as gunner... a sexy cheerleader... active in athletics, band, and chorus... likes to argue and tell corny jokes... Boy's State Delegate... greets anyone who enters the office with, "Have you any official business?"

ROSEMARY CROMACK

Rosie... Where's your glasses, Rosie?... loves Rat... was another mean safety patrol... could depend on her to make things lively... active in cheerleading and gymnastics in her younger years, also... new in our class this year, but now a full-fledged member.

Edie
Never forget all these good times we have had here. Especially
our Class Trip whom I know
we'll never forget!!
Good luck
in all you do!!
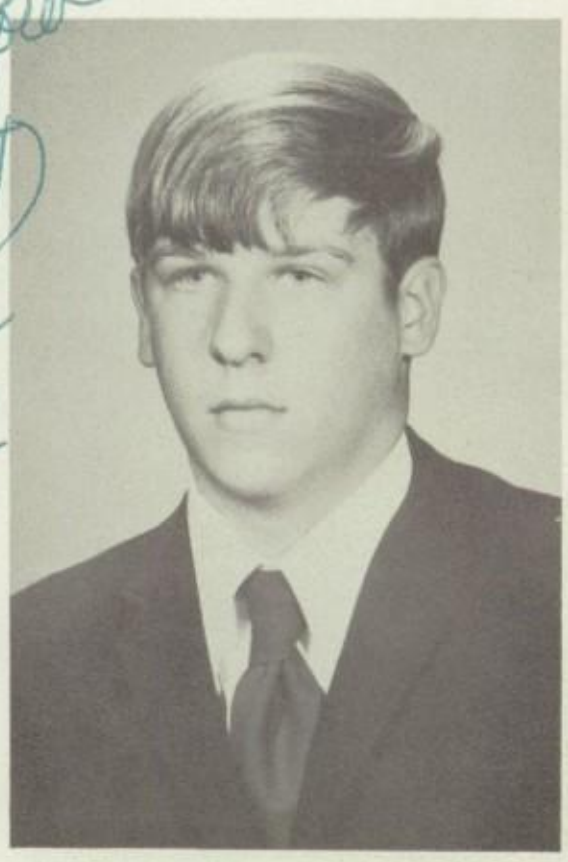
Love,
Doris

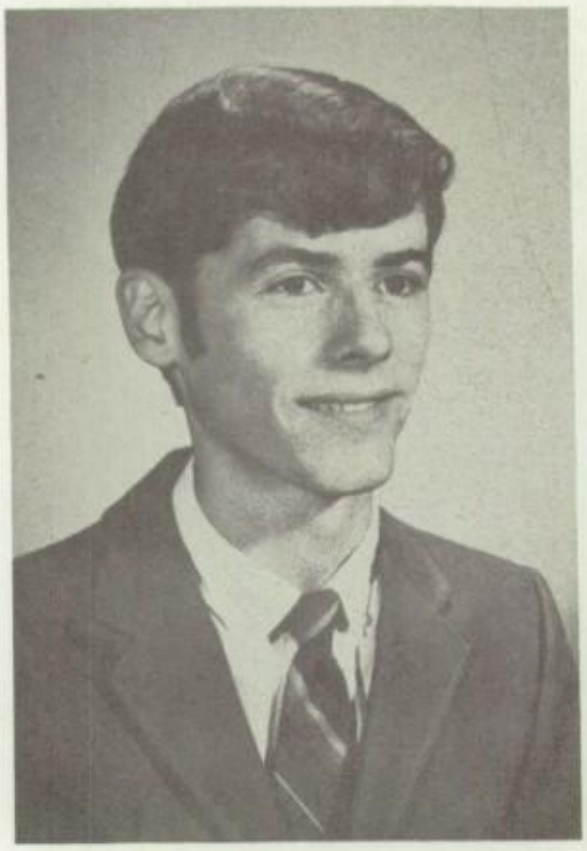
DORIS EDNA CROSS

Doris... How's Chump?... throws some great Senior parties... What's your major problem?... hoping her plans with Craig work out fine... an exuberant cheerleader... mean safety patrol... right underclassmen?



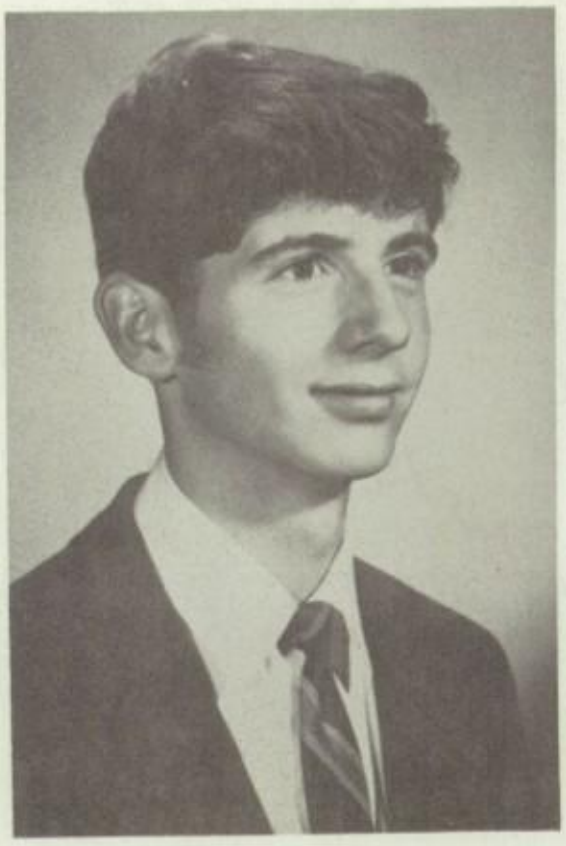
CRAIG BRIAN DALRYMPIE

Craig... works hard at the Grand Union instead of going to school... has cooled down since his freshman year and finally hit the Honor Roll... was also active in drama, folk music club, and has been a teacher's aid for Typing II.



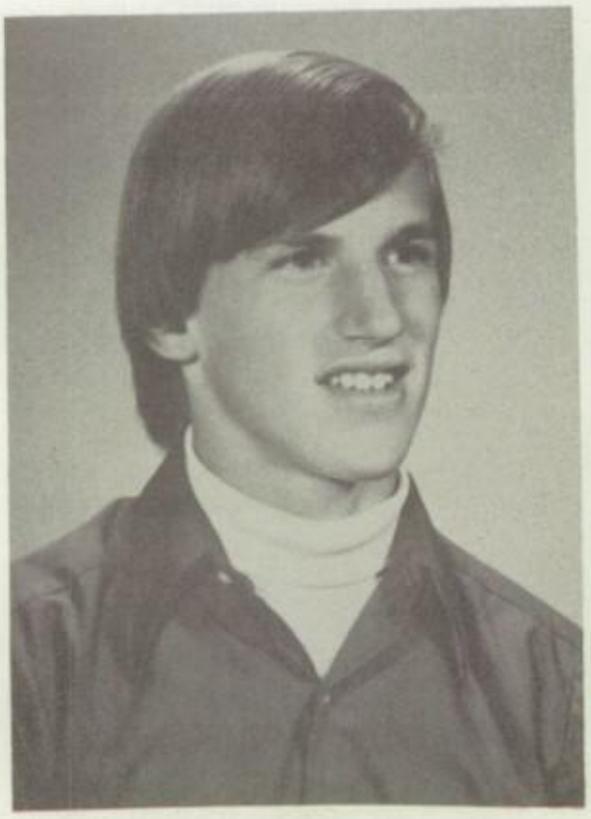
MARK GERARD DEMASI

Mark... one of the quieter members of our class most of the time; but... not afraid to express his opinions, which are often different... chosen as an alternate for Boy's State... played basketball and baseball... how's the weather on second base?



PAUL MICHAEL DEMASI

Paul... friendly... humorous... member in good standing at the Senior Lounge... has been a great help to boys sports by participating in baseball, basketball, soccer, and gymnastics... keep your hands on the wheel... foot on the brake... and please the car on the road.



LARRY RONALD DIX

Larry... full of the devil and C_2H_5OH, but he still comes on strong with the girls... done any of your own homework lately?... star center of the soccer team; participated in baseball, basketball, and gymnastics, also... where ever Larry goes the FUZZ follow!

KATHERINE ALICE ELLIOT

Cathy... hardworking... intelligent... hear she has a permanent seat at Latchis... we haven't seen much of Cathy this year because of work program... she's served as treasurer and vice-president in the past years... member of the National Honor Scoeity.

CURTIS SCOTT GOTTARDI

Curt... works hard for what he wants... made the Honor Roll every year... famous for his curve balls... a highly gifted basketball player... chosen for the Coaches Award in his junior year... put any dents in your father's Oldsmobile lately, Curt?

JAMES FREDICK HERRICK III

Jim. . isn't afraid to do what he wants... managed only one and a half hours of W.H.S. a day... then he hits Bennington... for a finale he zooms home and goes to work... boy, your vehicles really take a beating!

JASON CHRISTOPHER HOWES

Jase... red headed... humorous... Senior Class President... things get accomplished even though we had to hear a couple, two, three jokes first... playing the part of Super Chicken, he finally suceeded with his chick, Ginny.

IAN ALAN HULL

Ian... one of the more studious members of our class... transferred from Suffield, Conn. (as we are well aware) this year... always gets the answer before the question is asked... most always "botched" part of his homework... defines Future Shock as a "bloody" book... as Ian would say... "That's enough of this garbage!"

JOHN WALTER KENTFIELD

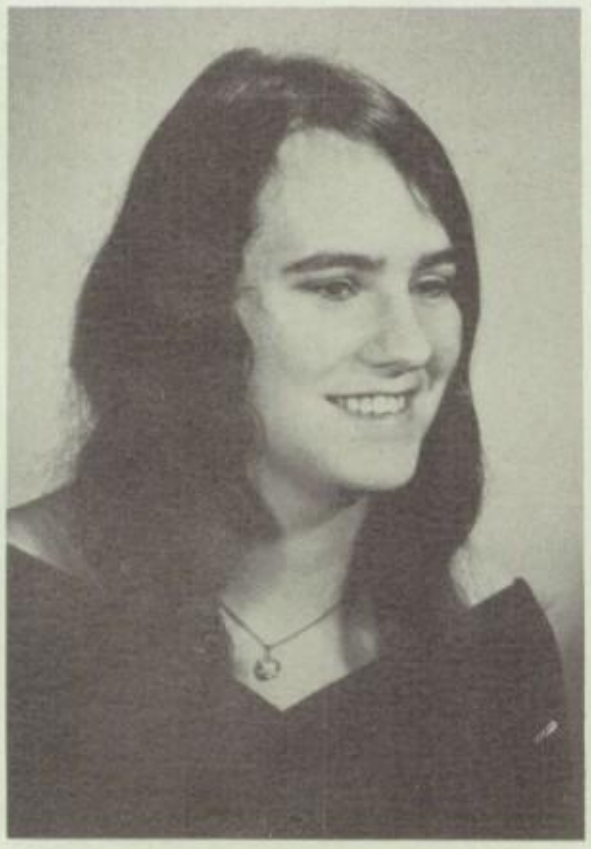
John... one of the smaller members of our class... quiet... adds to the gymnastic team... builds up his muscles, arm wrestling in the lounge... his car competition with Champs who will go through the most.

CAROL SUE KING

Carol... smart... friendly girl... when it comes to class work, she really gets into it... an active member of the National Honor Society... chosen as an alternate for Girl's State... she learned how to use her voice in chorus and she does, on Chuck!

SANDRA ANN KINGSLEY

Sandy... friendly, outgoing, cheerful... played field hockey and softball throughout high school... chosen as a representative from W.H.S. to Girl's State... member of the National Honor Society... plans to go to college after bumming around... off to a good start this year!



ELLEN MATILDA LEMAIRE

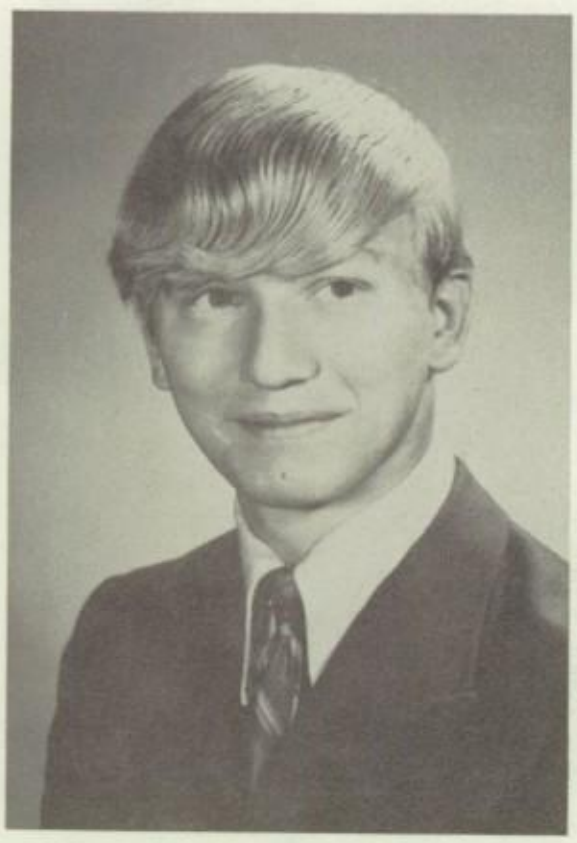
Tootsie... has a great sense of humor and a wierd laugh to match... speaks her piece when she feels like it... has a hang up for turtles... owns the biggest collection this side of the moon... goes to work every afternoon... a bus patrol who never rode the bus... made the honor roll... worked in the cafeteria... Say Totts, how are Asparagus and Parsley?

JOYCE LOUISE LEMMER

Joyce... joined us in January... chose Whitingham over Wilmington... loves to ski... is on the Haystack Ski Patrol... helps out on the elementary ski program... future arrows point toward a career in nursing.

WENDY MARLENE LOWE

Wendy... loves excitement and fun... one of the best rebounders... Girl's State delegate from Readsboro... enjoys field hockey... has a cool white car, when running... also yearbook staff member... those guys from North Adams, what do they do to you?

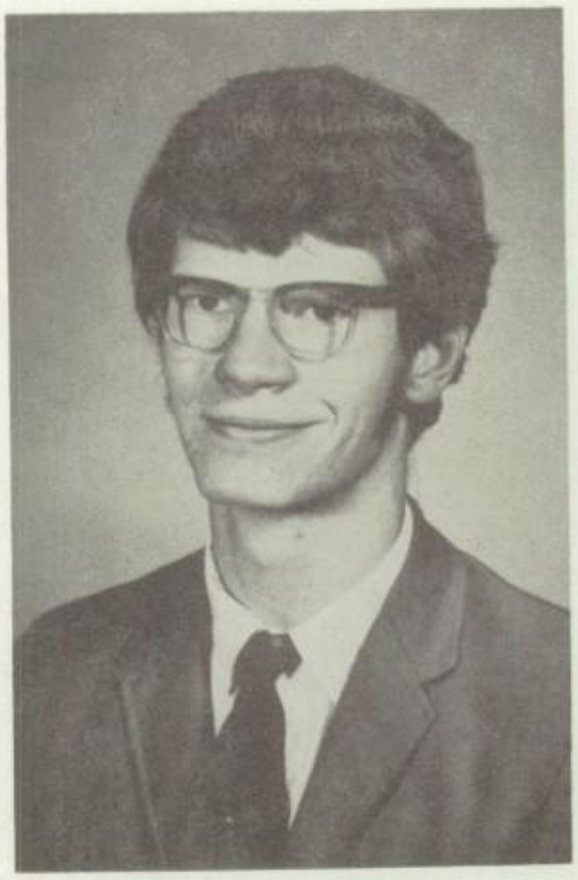


AARON ALAN MASSARI

Aaron... quiet... cariar freak... active in gymnastics and baseball... even though he is active during school hours, he is more involved in undertaking at the funeral home he wishes to open in Readsboro.

LINDA RAE MOORE

Linda... active in basketball, softball, and field hockey... quiet during school hours, thinking of something to complain about... other than this, she's a symbol in the girls room to the underclass mates.



RICKY ELDON PHELPS

Ricky... stands above the crowd... avoids schoolwork as much as possible... extremely boisterous... keeps the lounge hopping with his stereo... spends most of his time in Chorus bugging Mr. Colona or telling jokes... anything but singing - right Rick?

WILBURT LUCIEN RAINVILLE III

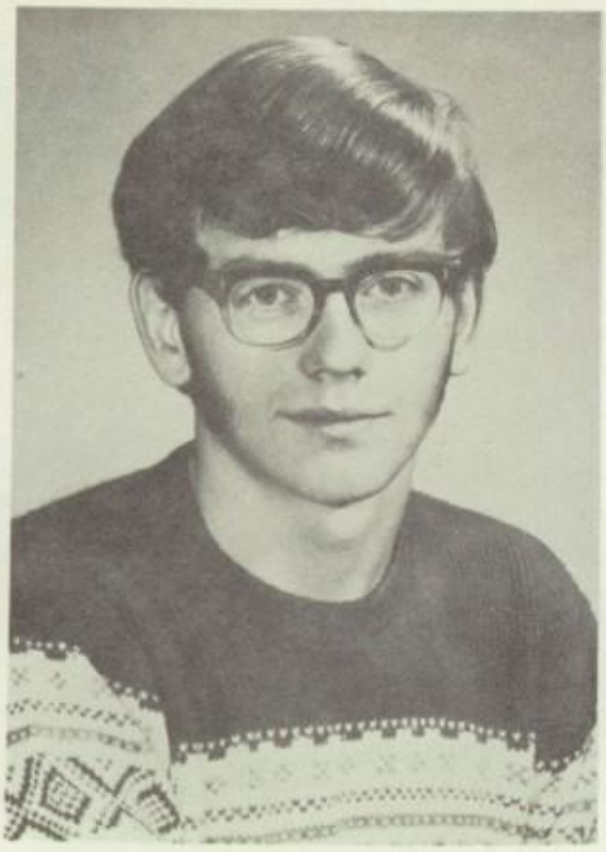
Champ... known far and wide for his many cars... has the ability to play the guitar well... helped out on the J.V. basketball team... occasionally made the Honor Roll... and Champ, wine skins are made for wine not- !

MICHELE DENISE ROY

Michele... quietest in our class... always seemed to be around when there was any action... disappeared to Wilmington Elementary to become a teachers aid... always made the Honor Roll.

BLANCHE EDNA SUMNER

Blanche... quiet, hardworking, always has a smile... she keeps you on the edge of your seat when she's driving... held the pocket strings on our for the last two years... was awarded the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award senior year - well deserved recognition.



KIM LEWIS THAYER

Kim... knows how to get a party going when it comes to school time... enjoys spending time with the girls in their bathroom at the senior lounge... has worked on the work program building himself up to be chauffeur for the kids that worked... and especially those who could sneak out.

Éide
To a great kid
Good
Luck

ROBERT GERARD TRAYNOR

Bobby... stands below the crowd... when he wants to get a point across he argues it out with Mr. Biehl... gets his practice in arguing while attending drama class... if you meet Bobby in the hall - smile - because he always has his camera.

GARY WOOD MACARTHUR

Gary... not only an actor when it comes to drama, but all the time, either in school or out... energetic... eyes and feet in perpetual motion... appreciates good folk music... a real whiz in fixing last minute breakdowns on Saabs... a big part of his life is his Fiddle.

DOUGLAS CLARK MULLER

Doug... had the horrifying experience of the California earthquakes... came to the peaceful environment of Vermont... has made the Honor Roll... quiet... spends his free time bowling.

In Memorium

Rosemary Cromack

Rosie will never be forgotten for she left many good memories with us. Not only did she quickly adapt to being a senior, but she became one of the more active members of the class. Rosie was energetic, always cheerful, and a friend to everyone. Deep is our sorrow that Rosie is no longer with us.

What If?

What if the seniors didn't have a lounge?

Tootsie says, "What if I wasn't 18 and had to be a wittle kid again?"

Kim says, "What if I had no car?'

Sandy says, "What if we never tried anything once?"

What if Marty didn't let the seniors in the office?

Curt says, "What if there wasn't a girl's room in the lounge?"

P.G. says, "What if I live until I'm 18?"

What would happen if the Coke machine didn't work??

Craig B. says, "What if Cindy didn't have to work on Saturday nights?"

Jim says, "What would happen if we all said no!"

Leon says, "What if Cook and I only sold one yearbook ad all afternoon?"

What if our yearbook advisor couldn't find the printer?

David says, "What if Mr. Willard never caught anyone skipping?"

Cook says, "What if Mr. Willard caught girls and boys in the same bathroom?"

Jase says, "What would happen if Will Wobinson wan out of wemon pie?"

What if Mr. Zong practiced what he preached?

Craig D. says, "What if the world was flat?"

Martha says, "What if I wasn't a senior?"

Cathy says, "What would happen if the sun didn't shine anymore?"

What would Mrs. Kimball do if all the seniors went to homeroom?

Joanne says, "What if there wasn't a Readsboro Restaurant?"

Sheri says, "What if the news of our class trip gets out?"

Linda says, "What if all the lakes and streams were 7-up, lime, and gin?"

Paul says, "What if the old senior lounge was locked up for good? -- Whoa!"

What if there was no snow to throw Doris in?

Linda B. says, "What if we couldn't buy sodas even after being kicked out of the lounge?"

Champ says, "What if I had no girls, cars, or money?"

Wendy says, "What if all the stores ran out of Chianti?"

Mary Lou says, "What if I was only a junior?"

What if Mrs. Barkus was a chaperone for the class trip?

Doris says, "What would happen if I ever got Curt and Paul in the snowbank?"

What if the juniors stayed out of the lounge?

What if all the seniors were 18?

What if Doug had a crew cut?

What if Joanne and Blanche hadn't gone to see Sweet Pie?

What if Doris didn't have any parties?

What if Neut's mother didn't dress him every morning?

What if none of the seniors graduate?

What if Blanche could wing snowbanks properly?

What if we ran out of "What If's"?

is not the goal, but the exercise."

Field Hockey

Standing: Miss Smith, Ester Woffenden, Heidi Brown, Joan Dix, Melody Murdock, Bonnie Boyd, Sheri Fox, Wendy Dustin, Faith Powell, Judy Betit, Carol Newlands; Kneeling: Sue Birch, Joanne Bemis, Wendy Bartlett, Sandy Kingsley, Mary Lou Bolt, Betty Janovsky.

Excitement, tenseness.

Who will get the ball first?

Everyone is ready, the whistle is heard.

There are shouts and the smack of sticks hitting one another.

You're full of vigor, and then somewhere you lose your energy.

But you find it again.

Your legs feel like they will fall off.

The final whistle blows; you feel defeat or victory.

Whatever the mental feeling, you know your body is exhausted.

Edie
Good luck in everything you attempt. Stay happy
love,
Mary Lou

Soccer

Standing, left to right: Frank Sprague (manager), Gene Shaw, Marty Lunstead, Jeff Moore, Kevin Eames, Jeff Putnam, Tony Eames, Mike Tracy, Brent Betit, Coach Doty; Kneeling: Steve Betit, John Crawford, Doug Bartlett, Leon Corse (co-captain), Paul DeMasi (co-captain), Roger VanWyck, Jim Lovering, Roland Kingsley. Missing: Craig Barkus, Dennis Corey, Eric Bartlett, Larry Dix (co-captain), Steve Hicks, Jim Prouty, Mark Moore, David Twitchell, Robert Eccher.

The whistle blows, the ball is kicked; will it ever finish that one revolution?

They dribble towards our goal... the coach yells, "Where's the defense?"

The goalie dives into the flying feet and somehow comes up with the ball.

The team breathes a sigh of relief...

They don't sigh for long though, all the energy that can be mustered is needed for the game...

All too soon the last horn blows... away to the locker room to wash off the mud and sweat.

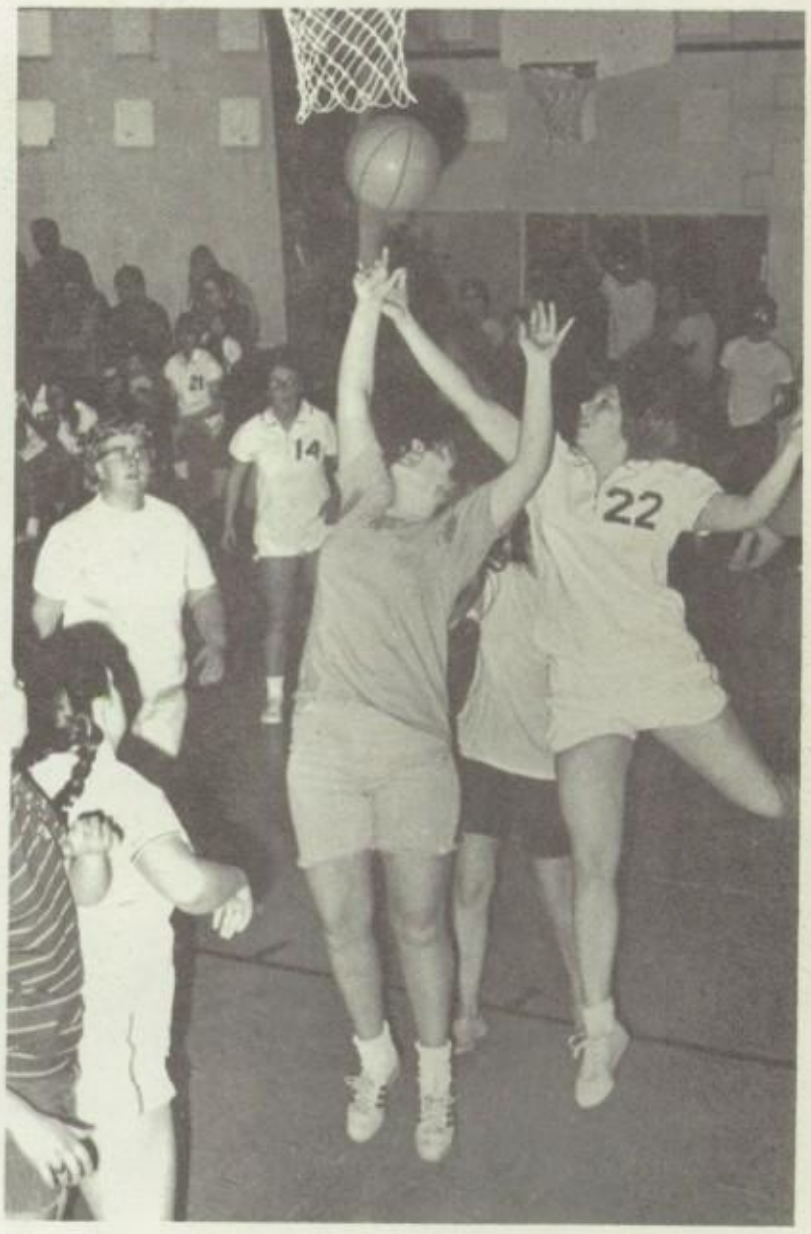
Already for the next game?

Good luck in your future years, Judy

Basketball

Standing: Coach Butterfield, Judy Betit, Cindy Birch, Jane Williams, Betty Janovsky, Sherri Fox, Donna Brown, Maxine Williams, Manager, Diana Shaw; Kneeling: Melody Murdock, Joanne Bemis, Wendy Lowe, Sue Birch. Missing: Linda Moore.

Molly Stark League Champions

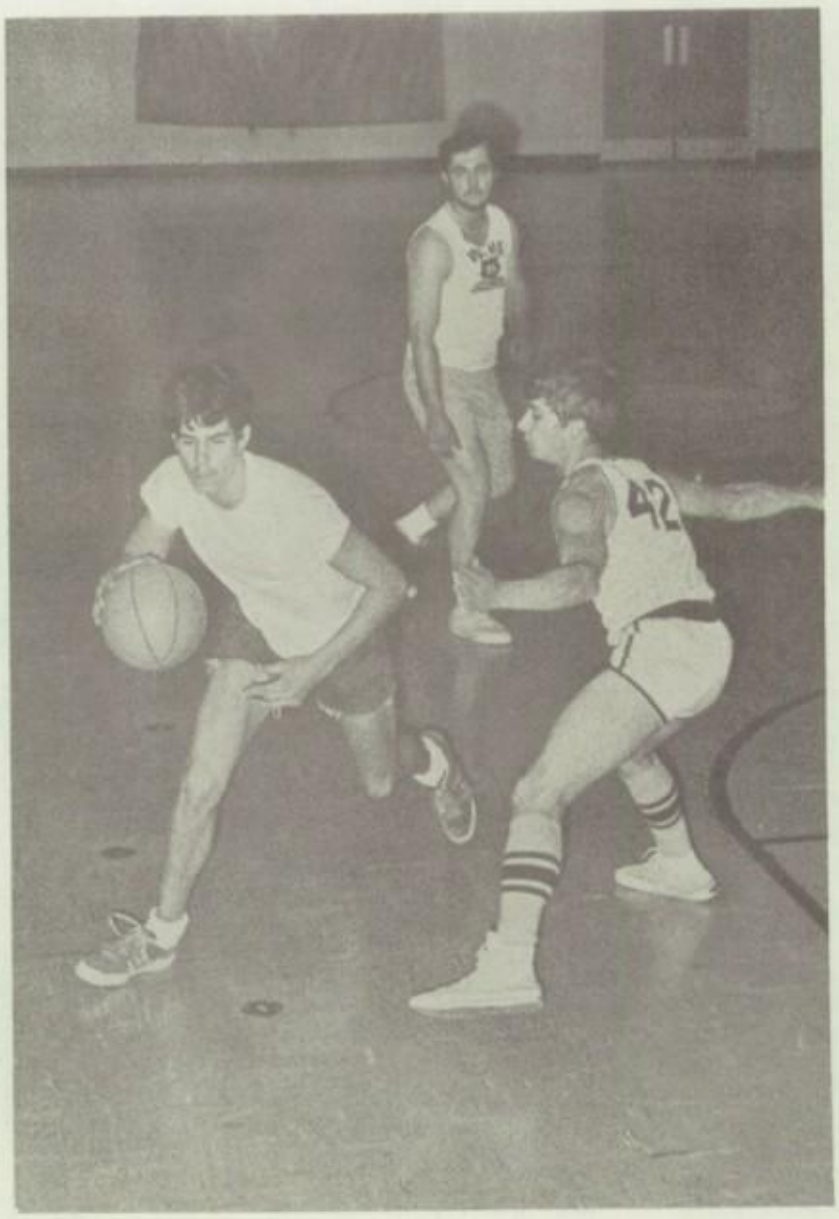


aying hard, working for the top.
hitingham girls became the 1971-71 Molly Stark League Champs!

It's not just the winning that counts; it's the experience of meeting new people in different schools. The girls learned, from a great determined coach, that basketball is played by a team, not an individual.

Basketball

Kneeling: Keith Allen, Dennis Marchegiani, Jim Lovering, Dennis Corey, Steve Hicks; Standing: Mr. Paul Zong (Coach), Craig Barkus, Leon Corse, Curt Gottardi (Co-captain), Roger Van Wyck (Co-captain), Doug Bartlett, Kevin Howard.



Warm up shots, layups, sets, jumpers, then the lineup is announced.
Seems like the game will never begin...
Finally the whistle blows, the clock starts, we get the tap and take it for a score.
Whistle blows... another foul?
Time out... What did we do wrong now?

The game starts again, and the referees are tiring, the calls getting worse... They score; our basket seems covered... the ball won't go in, the coach is getting ulcers...

The final buzzer rings, the crowd goes wild, we won... or did we?

Gymnastics takes coordination, timing, patience, and a lot of practice. The Boys' Gymnastics Team proved this by winning the Southern Vermont State Meet and placing third in the State Meet. We are all very proud of them.

Best of luck in whatever you may do and fun in the summer! Bonnie

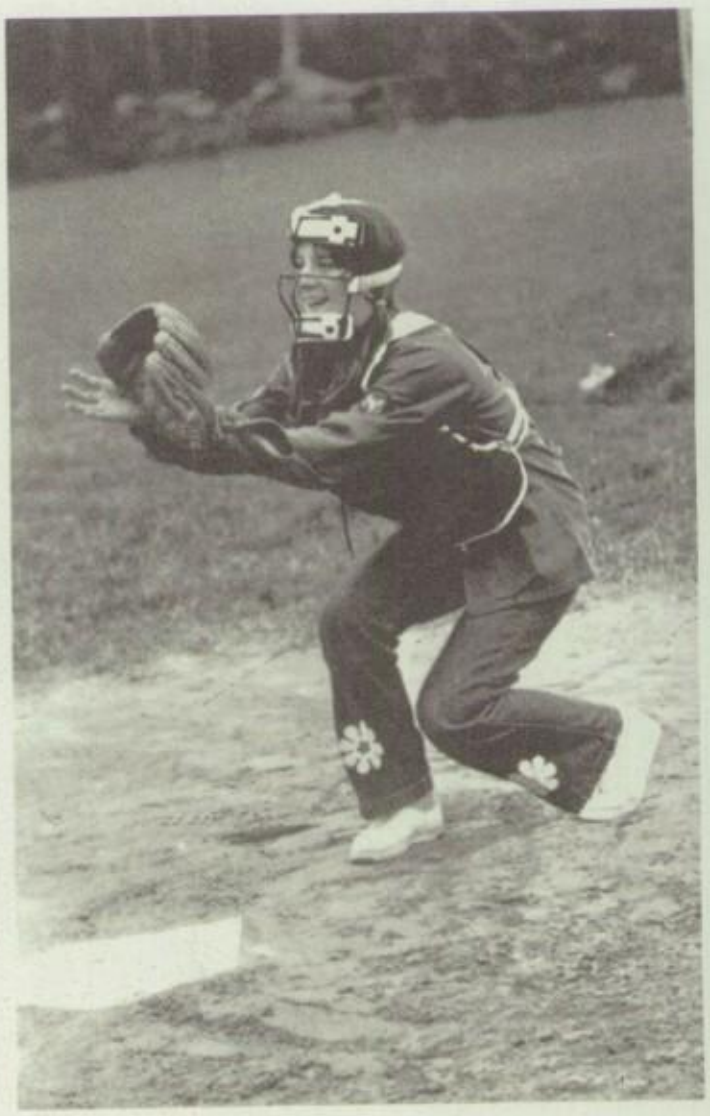
Softball

Standing: Pam Phelps (Manager), Linda Dix, Donna Brown, Denise Reynolds, Linda Moore, Linda Barnard, Miss Smith; Kneeling: Marty Zong, Teresa Ashcraft, Sue Birch, Mary Lou Bolt, Joan Dix.



Nine players whose attention is centered on hitting a small ball as hard as hard as they can and fielding it as fast as they can. Somehow though, the ball is never where you want it, and the opponents can always hit it harder than you. Frustration when you miss the ball, and it races by you; jubilation when the ball lands in your glove and doesn't fall out. None of the Whitingham Nine had much to rejoice about when looking at the results of the games, but it was fun anyway.

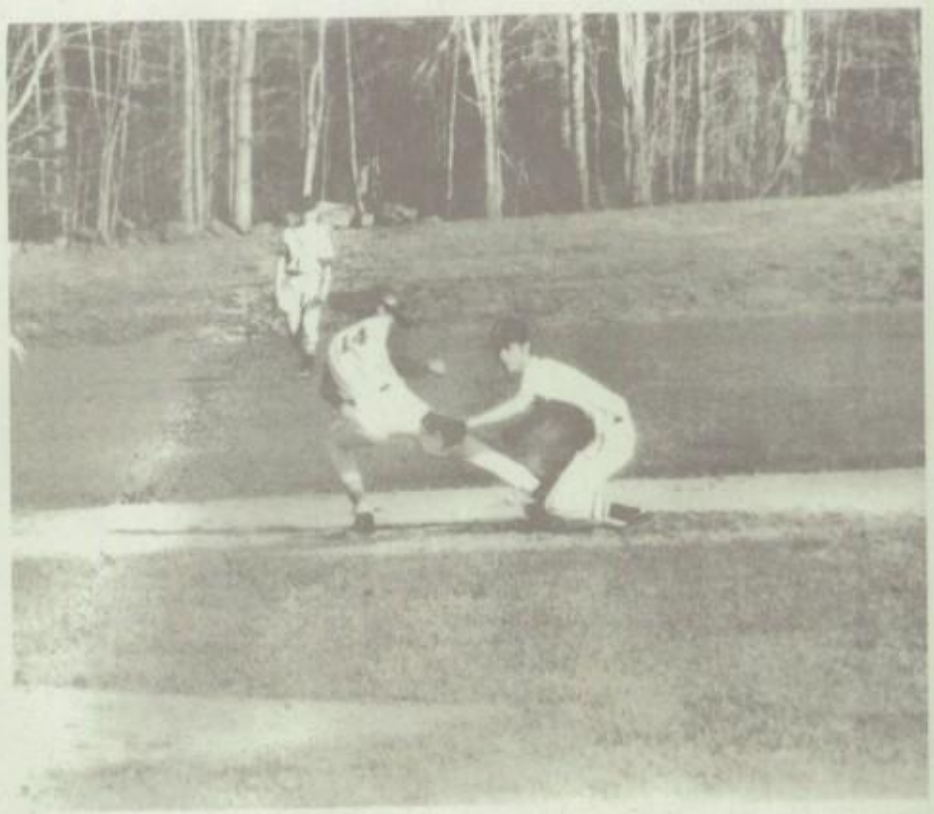
Baseball

Standing: Mr. Maynard (coach), Dennis Corey, Curtis Gottardi, Roger Van Wyck, Paul DeMasi, Doug Bartlett, Mark DeMasi, Alan Boyd (manager). Sitting: Gary Ross, Alan Ashcraft, Neil Van Wyck, Rodney Bemis, Glen Brown, Craig Bartosewcz, Steve Gottardi. Kneeling: Keith Allen, Mike Tracy.

Underneath the glaring sun, nine determined boys all strive towards the same goal. Seven grueling innings . . . waiting anxiously in the field . . . praying that if the ball comes your way you'll be able to catch it.



es on the batter . . . ears always listening for the coach's voice.
d then the bat cracks against the ball . . . you hold your breath . . .
il you hear the smack of the ball landing in someone's glove.
u breath a sigh of relief and turn back to the game.

The many activities which we encountered each day helped to round out our school life and gave us added fullfillment.
